

HAPPY EASTER

Dear

Hello, it's me....the Easter Bunny

I am so excited to come to your home this year and bring you lots of Easter goodies.

I love to play games, so I have hidden some eggs and you have to go and find them. When you find them, don't eat them until the grown up's say you can. I don't want to get into trouble and I would love to come back again next year!!

On Easter Sunday we celebrate when Jesus died and rose again. He did that to forgive our sins. These Easter eggs remind us of the big stone that Jesus moved and the empty tomb he left behind.

Have a wonderful time with your family today and remember to share your Easter goodies.

I'm going to hop back to my burrow now, so I can rest up for next year.

Have a wonderful Easter

LOVE

The Easter Bunny
X

